

Architectural Theory for Sustainability

The purpose of this symposium is to present and discuss ongoing research in the area of architectural theory, in relation to questions of sustainability.

Research Symposium

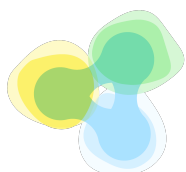

17 Nov 2022

13 - 20 hrs

Edificio 29 "Carta", R. 033d
Sala Riunioni Piano Rialzato
Piazza Leonardo da Vinci 26

POLITECNICO
MILANO 1863
DIPARTIMENTO DI
ARCHITETTURA E STUDI URBANI

New European Bauhaus
beautiful | sustainable | together

13:00 Massimo BRICOCOLI
Welcome

13:15 Christian GÄNSHIRT
Introduction: How to redefine the theoretical basis of Architecture?

13:45 Gaia CARAMELLINO
Environment visions in post-WWII Italian housing landscapes.

14:15 Matteo CLEMENTI
Quantitative indicators and tools to support sustainable design.

14:45 Andrea BORTOLOTTI
How to Design with (resource) flows?

15:15 Stamatina KOUSIDI
Theorizing the building envelope as an active surface.

15:45 Coffee Break

16:15 Chiara NIFOSÌ
Sustainability of everyday life public spaces.

16:45 Andrea GARZULINO
Can energy conservation intervention on built heritage be sustainable?

17:15 Francesca ZANOTTO
Trans-Architecture. Five Keywords for the Transition.

17:45 Andrea CANCLINI
Why has architecture lagged culturally behind environmental concerns?

18:15 Alessio BATTISTELLA
The Sustainable Lightness of the Limit.

19:00 Final Discussion, mod. Pierre Alain CROSET, Paolo SCRIVANO