

THESIS PROPOSAL/PROPOSTA DI TESI

Prof. Alessandro Coppola, Prof.ssa Marta Cordini

The proposal focuses on housing policies, practices and projects. It moves from the broad field of housing studies, encompassing research mostly done in sociology, human geography, and spatial planning. Research thesis proposals moving from these approaches and focusing on one of the following issues will be considered:

- emerging housing practices and projects (co-housing, housing for special needs)
- spatial planning and housing production and management
- urban regeneration in its housing dimensions
- housing informality
- housing movements and conflicts
- temporary and emergency housing
- housing policies
