

Descrizione programma di tesi

Morena M.

The purpose of the activity of the thesis is to carry out the foundations of a Real Estate feasibility study (technical - environmental - economical) testing the link among planning, building and management.

The aim of the thesis is to focus on the complexity of the design process and of its transformation/evolution with specific reference to the connected managements aspects.