

Sustainable transformation of neighbourhoods in Europe (STONIE)

An Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Programme (BIP), Spring 2024

The workshop is of 4 CFU; it will start February 26th, 2024 and end May 4th, 2024.

1. Professors: Anders Rickegard (University of Stockholm), Ilaria Mariotti with Valentina Dessì and Tommaso Cigognetti (DASTU-Politecnico di Milano), Christian Lamker (University of Groningen, NL), Robert Kitzmann (Humboldt University, Berlin)

2. Timetable online sessions (17.30-19.00)

Monday	February 26 th	Lecture #1 - Introduction, Organization of the course, requirements for students, present topics, explain to students how groups should be formed.
Thursday	February 29 th	Lecture #2 – Sustainability and neighbourhoods
Monday	March 4 th	Lecture #3 – Introduction to the city of Berlin
Thursday	March 7 th	Lecture #4: Methodological session– Research proposal
Monday	March 11 th	Lecture #5: Methodological session – Qualitative research
Thursday	March 14 th	Lecture #5: Methodological session – Case studies
Thursday	March 21 st	Seminar – Student groups present their research proposals

3. Student Groups

Student groups will be 3 or 4 students each, originating from at least two different partner universities.

4. Timetable Fieldwork in Berlin (preliminary version)

Sunday April 28 th	Arrival and settle in. 17.00 Lecture ("Current issues in sustainable urban transformation in Berlin" – Robert); Welcome dinner
Monday April 29 th	Students explore their research-site; prepare fieldwork; 17:00 Tutorial meeting (reflections on research-site/fieldwork set-up)
Tuesday April 30 th	Students do fieldwork; 17:00 Tutorial meeting (reflections on progress fieldwork)
Wednesday May 1 st	Per topic/subject: the 2 groups (one per research-site) introduce the other group to their site; afternoon free time
Thursday May 2 nd	Students do fieldwork; 17:00 Tutorial meeting (reflections on progress fieldwork)
Friday May 3 rd	Students complete their fieldwork; prepare powerpoint supported presentations for concluding workshop
Saturday May 4 th	Concluding workshop: presentations, power-point supported; Reflections & Conclusions incl. certificate ceremony
Sunday May 5 th	Departure from Berlin.